ADVERTISER--FALSIFIER

The course of the Advertiser has been so consistently vicious, incessantly disreputable and invariably destructive that it would be hardly true to characterize its most recent exhibition as the most despicable this community has ever experienced from a newspaper.

The Bulletin cannot give a more complete reply to the miserable false article published this morning regarding Miss Yarrow's alleged resignation and Rev. W. M. Kinsaid than is given by Hon. P. C. Jones.

The story is false, absolutely false. The attitude of the morning paper toward Rev. Mr. Kinsaid has been such that it is easy to believe that the falsity of the story was known to those responsible for its publication. It therefore furnishes an evidence of the depths of detestable tactics to which certain individuals in this town, having the freedom of a newspaper, will stoop.

It is not the work of men. It is the product of contemptible minds warped beyond the boundaries of human decency.

It is impossible to discuss the attack from the standpoint of gentlemanly character or ordinary morality because it is absolutely devoid of either and outside the circle of respectability.

There is only one place—the lowest—upon which to place a newspaper that deliberately publishes a falsehood and follows it with a series of alleged interviews with men whose names are not given. Well might the authors of such interviews be ashamed if their brazen souls knew such a feeling.

The cur in the gutter is less degraded than the defamer, of average intelligence, whose acts and words flow from and seek their inspiration in the fountains of malicious spite.

And the paper that strikes at an able and generally beloved pastor with absolute untruth is the one whose alleged morality campaign has called for words of commendation from occupants of other pulpits. These gentlemen of the cloth may have been fooled once.

They cannot fail now to realize that the organ to whose campaign of spite they have listened adds to its other qualifications that of hypocrite, maligner and fraud.

With such, the respectable people of Honolulu have nothing in common.

PRACTICAL IMPROVEMENT

One of the many things for which the people of Hawaii have especial reason to be thankful, at this period for reviewing the year's merces, is the awakening on the question of civic improvement. The Promotion Committee in taking up this very vital detail for making Hawaii more attractive has found, in the main, a response which is most gratifying. The spirit of making the city better, and enlisting each citizen in the work, will grow. Such movements do not turn backward.

In this respect the residents of Kaimuki have selected a most appropriate day for the opening of their campaign for beautification. They can do so, thanks and at the same time add nobly to practical work to aid the digestion of their dinners and establish the old principle that faith is good but, with works, it amounts to something. The leaders and enthusiasts are doing well. Results will be made speedily accomplished if each citizen will take a personal interest to the point of becoming an active worker and a practical enthusiast. Don't throw all the burden on the shoulders of a few. You will profit by the benefits, why should you not bear your fraction of the toil?

In the civic improvement plans carried out by householders and business men, Honolulu has plenty of excellent examples to follow. One of the most notable successes of recent months was in the city of Denver, where a special "cleaning up" day was named. It extended to the downtown business districts as well as the residential sections. Store fronts were painted, lawns were cleaned up, everything was done in fact to put the city in spick, span cleanliness. Prizes were offered for the most attractive downtown store fronts, the best flower beds, lawns, etc.

The mayor of the city took active leadership of the campaign and issued a series of suggestions which can be applied with excellent effect in this town or in any district of the islands. Here are some of his remarks issued in an official proclamation:

"If your store front, residence or fence is dingy, order it painted."

"If your awning is old, torn or faded, get a new one."

"If your sidewalk, gate or fence needs repairing, fix it."

"If your advertising sign is old and faded, take it down or paint it."

"Resolve never to throw paper in the street."

"Destroy the young weeds that are starting on your property and on your neighbor's property."

"Burn all the rubbish possible—allow no one to throw it on streets, alleys or vacant lots."

"Promote not to spit on the sidewalk."

"Organize a block improvement society, and allow no weeds to grow on sidewalk area or vacant property in your block."

"Ask your millmen, grocers, etc., and expressmen to have their wagons painted."

"Irrespective of the size of your house make your lawn the finest."

"Eliminate the front of your store in the business section."

"Every effort put forth or dollar spent to improve our city's appearance will be returned two-fold."

While giving thanks for the moral and material blessings of the past, the people of Honolulu cannot do better than pledge themselves more heartily to the public improvement campaign which adds to the moral character as well as the material success of our community.

AMERICAN IDEAS AND LAND POLICY

Just consider this phase of the land situation for a moment:

The established policy of the United States is one of kindly liberality when disposing of public lands to bona fide settlers. Any other policy is foreign to American ideas.

Hawaii in seeking consideration from the Federal government has suggested many radical steps. For instance, that an exception be made in our case for the admission of Chinese laborers.

At the same time we claim to be anxious that our public lands shall be settled by white men who will work in connection with the main industry.

Having found a colony of Europeans who will take up public land and work it in connection with the main industry, is it remarkable that Hawaii should be misunderstood on the mainland when the Territory hesitates to take what might be termed a radical stand on the price of the land?

Wouldn't Congress tell us that we could well afford to give away every acre of land if by so doing we built up a Territory of homes?

JUSTICE WILDER IS NOT DISQUALIFIED

The Supreme Court this morning rendered an important ruling in the case of Love vs. Love, in which the question was raised whether Associate Justice Wilder were not disqualified because a demurrer in the case in the Circuit Court had been signed Wilder & Robertson, of which firm Wilder was a partner.

The oral decision on the matter was delivered by Chief Justice Frear about as follows: "The Court is of the opinion that the mere fact that a member of the court has been counsel nominally by reason of his being a member of a partnership, does not disqualify him, he having taken no action in the case or given any advice. This, of course, is in the absence of statute on the subject. The court rules that Justice Wilder is not disqualified in this case."

This ruling by the court establishes an entirely new precedent in such cases, as formerly it has always been the practice for a judge to withdraw in any case in which he had been associated as counsel.

TRENT MUST PAY SAYS COURT BLANKET WARRANT

The Supreme Court this afternoon rendered decision in the case of E. R. McClanahan vs. County Treasurer Trent, reversing Judge Robinson's decree restraining Trent from paying the famous Andrew Adams blanket warrant.

The opinion by Hartwell is in part as follows:

This is a taxpayers' bill brought to restrain the Treasurer of the County of Oahu from paying a county warrant issued by the County Auditor in favor of Andrew Adams in the sum of $141, which warrant had been examined, allowed and ordered paid by the Board of Supervisors of the county, the plaintiff claiming that the warrant is unauthorized by law and its issuance to Adams unlawful as he is "not entitled thereto in payment of any claim or claims, demand or demands due to him from or chargeable against the said County of Oahu."

Any person having a claim against a county can, if he thinks fit to do so, assign his claim, his assignee then becoming entitled to collect the claim and, if necessary, sue for it in his own name; or the assignee may authorize an attorney to collect his claim either in the name of the attorney or of the claimant.

There was nothing illegal or contrary to any provision of the County Act in the allowance of this claim by the Board of Supervisors or in the issuing of the warrant by the county auditor.

We are aware of no power which the Treasurer himself has to decline to pay a warrant which has been "legally examined, allowed and ordered paid by the Board of Supervisors," as the law does not constitute him an authority to scrutinize the acts of the Board and to pay or refuse to pay warrants in payment of claims passed by the Board according, as in his opinion, the action of the Board was legal or illegal. The decree of the Circuit Judge perpetually restraining respondent from paying the warrant in question is reversed and the bill is dismissed.

OLD MOKOHI STEAMER CHANGES HANDS AGAIN

The hull of the old steamer Mokoiki, one of the steamers used years ago about the islands and which was replaced by more modern vessels, and formerly used between Honolulu and the settlement at Mokolai, was sold this morning by Young Brothers to Captain Miller of the Lehua. The Mokoiki was condemned some five or six years ago. Later the Wilder Company disposed of her to Young Brothers, who have been using her in their diving business.

There is nothing but the hull of the old boat left. The boilers and other valuable were taken out some time ago. It is understood that Captain Miller will fit her out with oil tanks for use in this vicinity. She is now tied up alongside the steamer Lehua.

KAIMUKI READY FOR ARBOR DAY

The Kaimuki, Palolo and Waiwae Improvement Club is at present making strenuous preparations for its Arbor Day tomorrow, when the first step will be taken towards the realization of that organization's ambitious plans for the beautifying of the at present comparatively barren waste at the places indicated by its name. While tomorrow will be the actual Arbor Day, the club does not by any means intend to let its tree planting be limited to that one day, but expects to go right along with the work, planning streets and lots as they become cleared and are prepared for receiving trees.

Catarrh of the Head Which Affected Hearing Cured by Pe-ru-na.

Mr. J. Emile Tanguay, No. 322 John St., Quebec, is Secretary of the Jacques Curling Club of Quebec, one of the leading sporting clubs in the city. Its members are composed of young men of the best families. He writes:

"Last winter I caught a severe cold which developed into a severe case of catarrh of the head, affecting my hearing especially. My eyes ran, my system seemed to be generally clogged up. I was advised by a club friend to try Peruna, and did so at once. To my delight I found a change set in for the better within three days, and in eight days I was entirely well." J. Emile Tanguay.

Mr. Adolph Koehler, President of the North Side Turners' Club, writes from Clark and Leland Ave., Chicago, Ill.: "It is with pleasure that I endorse Peruna as a first-class medicine especially for catarrhal affections of the throat and lungs. I have used it with much benefit and several of my friends have been cured of catarrh entirely where Peruna was used."—Adolph Koehler.

"Nothing Better Than Peruna for Catarrhal Troubles," Says Congressman C. P. Dorr.

C. P. Dorr, Hotel Johnson, Washington, D. C., Ex-Congressman from West Virginia, writes: "I can cheerfully recommend Peruna to anyone who wants a safe and permanent cure for catarrh. For throat, lung and catarrhal trouble there is nothing better than Peruna."—C. P. Dorr.

Colds Lead to Chronic Catarrh.
A common cold is acute catarrh, which quickly becomes chronic catarrh if allowed to remain.

Every cold snap leaves in its trail thousands of cases of catarrh, many of whom for want of an effective remedy, will suffer from this disease the rest of their lives.

Is there anything that can be done to prevent all this?

In the first place, Peruna used at the proper time will prevent having cold. In the second place, Peruna will cure a cold in from two to five days.

Again, Peruna will cure catarrh quickly in the first stages, and finally Peruna will also cure chronic catarrh, if used properly and persistently.

Peruna kept in the house and properly used will therefore not only act as a safeguard against the ailments which result from sudden cold waves, but will also prove a sure remedy for this class of ailments.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Peruna can be purchased at any first-class drug store for $1.00 per bottle. Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.
